Rev. 04/01 pp

ADJORNED

Exhibit Page 252

1 inspection and production of child protective services records relating to Robert Paul Rinde
 2 aka Robert Larry Leroy Pitsor and Paul Lewis.

3 This objection to the subpoena duces tecum is based on the following grounds:

4 1. Pursuant to the Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Act and specifically 5 42 USC § 5106a(b) states are required to provide methods to preserve the confidentiality of 6 all records in order to protect the rights of the child and the child's parents.

7 2. Pursuant to 45 CFR § 1340.20 states are required to "hold all information 8 related to personal facts or circumstances about individuals" involved in child abuse 9 programs or projects as confidential. Further, 45 CFR § 1340.14(i)(I) states the 10 unauthorized disclosure of child protective services records is a criminal offense.

11 3. Under Title 74 "Public Assistance," RCW 74.04.060 provides for the 12 confidentiality of DSHS records in general including CPS records and public assistance 13 records. RCW 74.04.060 requires the confidentiality of DSHS records and states that "for 14 the protection of applicants and recipients, the department ... (is) prohibited except as 15 hereinafter provided from disclosing the contents of any records ... except for purposes
 16 directly connected with the administration of the programs of this title". RCW 74.04.060 17 further states that in any judicial proceeding, except those directly concerned with the 18 administration of these programs, such records and their contents, shall be deemed 19 privileged communications". In this case the records are being sought in a civil proceeding 20 which is not directly connected with any program under Title 74.

21 4. Mr. Rinde and Mr. Pitsor are considered by the Department to be applicants
 22 and recipients of services provided pursuant to Title 74 and thus under RCW 74.04.060
 23 these CPS records are privileged.

24 5. DSHS records are confidential and privileged under RCW 13.50 and can 25 only be released as provided by that statute. RCW 13.50.100.

1 This objection has been filed pursuant to Civil Rule 45(d)(1) and any notices of 2 hearing or motions regarding this subpoena duces tecum are to be sent directly to counsel

20 Defendant Corporation of the President of The Church of Jesus 21 Christ of Latter-day Saints ("COP") is the corporation established by 22 The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints to interface with 23 secular society. COP has reserved February 9, 2007 for hearing a 24 Motion to Dismiss the unincorporated church as COP believes the 25 church has no capacity to sue or be sued, and thus is not a proper 26 party. If the motion is denied, attorneys for defendant COP will 27 appear and answer on behalf of the unincorporated church. The 28 parties represent and agree that not having the Answer on behalf of 29 the "Mormon Church" at this time will not affect the parties' ability 30 to meet Case Scheduling Deadlines.

DAY SAINTS, an unincorporated association,

Defendants.

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff alleges that approximately 25 years ago he was sexually abused by a Scout Master of the Boy Scouts who was a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints ("the Church" or "the LDS Church"). Although the abuser was not a member of the clergy, Plaintiff alleges that defendants had a duty to prevent such abuse. By this motion, defendant Corporation of the President of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints ("COP") moves to dismiss the Church as a party. COP stands in the shoes of the Church and brings this motion

1 on the Church's behalf because, as discussed below, the Church has no capacity to sue, be sued,
 2 or participate in litigation.

4 Defendant COP is a corporation organized nearly 75 years ago as a legal vehicle for the 5 Church's interface and relationship with secular society. COP possesses assets, enters contracts
 6 to carry out the business of the Church, hires and pays employees, and has the capacity to file 7 suit and be sued. COP is registered to conduct business in the State of Washington and has 8 identified an agent for service of process. In contrast, the Church exists solely as a spiritual and 9 ecclesiastical entity which possesses no assets or property, does no business in any state, and has 10 no employees. According to Church doctrine, the Church functions as the Kingdom of God on 11 earth. The Church is not incorporated or registered to do business, and has no agent for service 12 of process.
 13

14 COP moves to dismiss the Church from this suit for two reasons. First, the Church lacks 15 capacity to be sued. Once a religious organization has seen fit to incorporate, it is solely this 16 legal entity that can be sued. The corresponding ecclesiastical, unincorporated church lacks any 17 legal existence. Enforcing this principle would cause no prejudice to plaintiff's liability or 18 damages case. COP concedes it is liable for any negligence of the Church and COP's assets are 19 available to satisfy any judgment. Thus, for example, counsel for the parties tried a similar 20 sexual abuse case in the Western District of Washington just a few months ago, and the sole 21 defendant in that case was COP. COP proposed a jury instruction, which Judge Ricardo S.
 22 Martinez gave, that advised the jury that COP "stands in the shoes of the Church."

24 That is as equally true here as it was there. Because COP stands in the shoes of the 25 Church, the Church has no assets, and any judgment would be paid by COP, the Church is
